REFLECTIONS ON A & GREAT SUMMER UPCOMING EVENTS

Dear Ranch Sorters,

As I drive home from Reno, I'm inspired by the incredible summer we've had in ranch sorting. The wonderful memories of competition and the friendships we've built are what keep so many of us engaged in this sport. I'm also thrilled about the upcoming production events we have planned for the fall and the State Finals season.

This summer has been exceptional, kicking off with the World Finals, which hosted 7,800 teams and paid out a record $900,000 in cash and prizes. The event ran smoothly and efficiently, with fun at an all-time high. Equine Network added an extra level of prestige with new signage, setting a positive tone for the season.

Another highlight was the Dallas State Fair. Tommy and Laura consistently run great events, and this year was no exception. They exceeded expectations with 1,080 teams and $85,140 paid out. One of the things I appreciate about TR Shows is the consistency of the cattle, which ensures fair competition. It emphasizes finesse, making it more than just a horse race.

In early September, we attended WSP's Eastern States Finals in Tunica, MS, which featured 1,800 teams and nearly $200,000 in cash and prizes. The weather was perfect, with temperatures in the low 80s, making it enjoyable for both livestock and competitors. This was the third annual Eastern States Finals, and we're excited about what next year will bring.

To cap off the summer, Western States Productions held an event in Reno, paying out nearly a quarter of a million dollars in cash and prizes, with 2,078 teams participating. The fun was through the roof! The staff at these events demonstrated their excellence yet again. Rowdy and Clint kept the energy high, while judges ReDee, Lenny, Marti, and Chris made fair calls. Jennifer and Emily efficiently managed the office, keeping things running smoothly, while Justin, Sam, Dana, Jimmy, Sheldon, Chelsea, and Elias ensured efficient cattle changes. The gate and welcome crew—Tanner, Emily, Lonnie, Kylie, and the Rasmussen Family—created a positive experience for everyone involved. Amy Wheatley’s social media efforts and games added that extra fun touch that WSP is known for. I cannot thank the entire crew enough; they truly make these events special.

As we turn our focus to upcoming shows, be sure to mark your calendars for the Congress Super Sort and Eastern Sorting Bowl in Jackson, Ohio (October 18th-20th), the Western Sorting Bowl in Las Vegas, NV (November 22nd-24th) at the South Point, and the South Western Regional Finals at the Plaza in Las Vegas (December 2nd-4th).

The Congress show has been a staple RSNC event in the East for over 10 years. It runs in conjunction with the prestigious Congress Quarter Horse Show, just 1 hour down the road. As one of the largest AQHA shows, it attracts the best show horses in the country and features an excellent trade show. We’re fortunate to be connected to the Congress, allowing us to compete for Congress medallions for the top 10 in every class, with winners having the chance to purchase an official Congress leather jacket! This event also includes the All-Star Sorting Bowl classes, with a guaranteed payout of $50,000 across three high-stakes classes, along with coveted sorting bowl trophies for the top three placings. New this year are the Gold Shootout classes, the #9 and #13 divisions, available to gold and platinum members, offering a limited number of teams and exciting payouts. These classes represent the best value at the show and are sure to generate excitement for the upcoming season. Additionally, high-point awards will be available across four rating divisions in all other non-high-stakes classes, making this event accessible for riders of all levels and budgets.

The Western Sorting Bowl at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas is another must-attend event, especially for those in the western U.S. The South Point is the premier facility, with arenas, rooms, stalls, restaurants, and entertainment all under one roof. Similar to Congress, this show will offer a mix of regular classes and high-stakes events, making it a family-friendly experience.

Following that, the South Central Regional Finals will take place at the Plaza Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. This event provides another fantastic opportunity for sorters to compete for regional prizes while enjoying the vibrant Vegas atmosphere during Cowboy Christmas and the accompanying trade shows. True to RSNC Productions, we will finish in a timely manner, allowing contestants to enjoy dinner and explore the attractions.

State finals season is just around the corner, and producers are gearing up for the end-of-season points races. This program is essential for local level sorters, providing a significant incentive at year’s end as they compete against contestants from across the state. The producer with the most teams from the previous year earns the right to host the state finals, awarding prizes provided by RSNC and producers to the champions in their respective rating divisions. We have an impressive prize lineup this year that all champions will be proud to claim.

Thank you for your continued support of ranch sorting. I look forward to seeing you at the upcoming events!

Sincerely,

Logan Wolfe
RSNC Event Director

Johnny Lovett and family

Nestled in the outskirts of Waynesboro, Georgia is one of RSNC's largest producers, and it all started in a backyard. Johnny Lovett set up a sorting pen at his house, and people began coming - rain or shine - from miles around. According to Johnny, the rain was a problem, which he fixed by building BSC Arena in 2015. The arena name emphasizes the focus on family as it is named after Lovett's three grandchildren Bentley, Sophie, and Cason.

In fact, family is an often cited reason that people enjoy coming to BSC Arena. When the arena was first built, people enjoyed sitting on the pavilion chatting with Johnny's parents, Mr. Jack and Miss Kathryn. Johnny has been known to feed delicious rib-eyes to contestants at the state finals, and everybody is served with a smile by Lovett's wife Karen, and daughters Kris and Kasey. Son-in-law Marcus Johnson helps Johnny run a successful cow-calf operation, and functions as cattle crew on show weekends.

Lovett has long been a member of the horse world, but when he joined the sorting world he put Waynesboro on the map. He was very influential in making Georgia a top 5 producer for several years running. This enabled BSC contestants to ride for year-end saddles. Not only is he providing a great place to sort, Lovett himself is in the RSNC Hall of Fame having won over $25,000.

Looking back on how it started, Lovett remembers going to Tuesday night practices at Cliff Chancey's. From there the two started riding together at some small sortings around Georgia, and they decided that they would partner on producing their own shows. Lovett says, "I made my decision that if I was going to keep hosting sortings, then a covered arena was a must. I also knew that Cliff Chancey was the right partner- he wants the T's crossed and the I's dotted, and the books balanced to the penny."

Georgia slipped out of the top five this year - bested by Arizona and Colorado - but make no mistake, Lovett and Chancey have a little something up their sleeves for their 2024 division winners. It's too early to spill the beans, but nothing less than expected from producers who care about their sorters. If you want to see what BSC is all about, join Lovett and Chancey in November and December.

You won't regret it!

Over 40 states and 5 countries were represented!

2024 RSNC STAFF

After eight days of ranch sorting in the historically beautiful Fort Worth, Texas, the 2024 RSNC World Finals came to an end. With each day ending early, Fort Worth offered plenty of time to enjoy with friends and family. People were able to visit the historic downtown Stockyards, botanical gardens, fantastic restaurants, and incredible western stores and shopping.

In order to spend more time visiting Fort Worth and allow horses to settle in, trailers began arriving early Thursday and Friday before the event started on Saturday. People came from all areas; 40 states and at least 5 countries were represented. Between the five stall barns, almost 1,200 stalls were used. One of the amazing sponsors, Total Feeds, sponsored a bag of Total Equine feed for each trailer that arrived. Once a majority of people arrived, a welcome dinner was held on Saturday evening. After eating dinner, the Western Heritage awards were presented and Hall of Fame inductees were announced and given their plaques. Following the award ceremony, the Challenge of Champions Back Number ceremony was held, so each Challenge of Champions contender could receive their plaques and back numbers. It was a great kick start to the week, as everyone joined together with a great meal and celebration.

The prestigious event was larger this year than last, with over 7,600 teams. The sponsored classes were some of the largest classes of the week: the Cinch #13 HC class had 496 teams, the Thrive Equine #10 HC class had 606 teams, the Total Feeds #8 class had 698 teams, and the Mil-Spec Liner #6/4 INC HC class was the largest of the week with 831 teams. In addition to the regular classes, people were able to watch the Horseman's Choice Select Sale, where 18 horses passed through the ring. They were also able to watch the 2023 and 2024 Horseman's Choice Select Sale classes. The 2023 sale class allowed horses that went through the sale the year prior to compete in a special class; the 2024 sale class allowed horses that had just gone through the sale the day prior to compete. Between the two classes, $22,000 was given away.

The Challenge of Champions is a new program in RSNCR, having just started in 2020, but it is an exciting one. The program is a way to honor and highlight the successes of the best of the best, in every division. The way it works is simple: the top five money earners in their respective divisions at RSNCR-sanctioned events throughout the season have the opportunity to face off in a “Challenge of the Champions” Round Robin at the World Finals. The contender of each division with the most amount of cows, in the least amount of time at the end of the Round Robin will be crowned the division “Champion of Champions”. Each of the top five contenders are awarded a Cinch Shirt, Felt Back Tag, and a Challenge of the Champions Qualifier award. The back tags are numbered 1 through 20, with back tag number 1 being awarded to the overall highest money earner of the season. Each division’s Champion of Champions is awarded a bonus of $1,000.

The 2024 Challenge of Champions was a tight and fun race. In the Rookie/Graduated Rookie division, the top five money earners who qualified for the Round Robin were Randy Moore (Georgia), Jason Anderson (Nebraska), Amy Sodrel (Georgia), London Dickson (Arkansas), and Jake Ellsworth (Arizona). After the Round Robin was completed, Amy Sodrel came out as Champion of Champions. She came in with $16,840 in season earnings. In the Novice/Graduated Novice division, the top five were Danny Sodrel (Georgia), Kris Doornink (Wyoming), Gage Moore (Georgia), Sage Bach (South Dakota), and Santiago Espinoza (Florida). Upon completion of the Round Robin, Gage Moore, with season earnings of $42,008, was crowned Champion of Champions. For the Amateur division, the top five for the season were Cheyenne Koesters (Texas), Will McKee (Tennessee), Deroy White (Oklahoma), Kori Haile (Texas), and Preston Ammerman (Oklahoma). After an intense Round Robin, Cheyenne Koesters was determined to be Champion of Champions, with season earnings of $46,409. In the Open division, Kevin Reese (Tennessee), Matt Stevens (Oklahoma), Joel Lesh (Oklahoma), Logan Wolfe (Colorado), and Shelley Fitzgerald (Oklahoma) were the top five money earners for the season. The Champion of Champions was crowned to be Joel Lesh, with season earnings of $42,791.

With the 2025 season well underway, it is only a matter of time before the next Challenge of Champions are competing for the coveted title of Champion of Champions at the World Finals!

RSNC looks forward to an even bigger and better 2025 World Finals!

To the Ranch Sorting Community,

To all of you who competed in RSNC events during the 2023-2024 season, thank you! While having fun and creating friendly competition for all levels of sorters remains the top priority for RSNC, we would also like to tip our hats to those of you who had success in state, regional, and national shows! For those of you who made the trek to the Historic Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, congratulations and thank you for making it one of the best turnouts yet. The RSNC could not put on these great events without your continued support and competitive drive in the sorting pen.

To address the continued growth of RSNC we are pleased to announce new membership opportunities. Keeping in mind the participation level of our family of sorters, we are offering a new tiered membership program. Sorters can choose from a basic membership all the way up to the Platinum level which offers the household of sorters the absolute best value for the whole family! While all of the new membership levels and associated benefits are listed on the membership form, there are a few perks that are worth noting!

RSNC's top-tier membership is the Platinum membership. This level is for those families & individuals who are serious about saving money on entry fees and World Finals stalls while sharing in the bonus features that come with this highest-level membership. The Platinum membership fully covers one sorter in a home, plus a spouse and a child or two children in the household under the age of 18 with Gold level memberships. The Platinum family will receive extended early-bird stall discounts at RSNC produced events, Gold Shootout entry discounts, a subscription to Ride TV as well as Horse and Rider Magazine, and the absolute best roadside coverage for the horse trailer family with a subscription to US Rider which covers all your vehicles, towing or not when those unthinkable things happen on the road.

For the Gold member the RSNC World Finals will feature two "Gold Shootout" classes. Sorters in the #13 and #9 will compete for $75,000 added money between the two divisions and all you must do to be eligible is fully qualified for the World Finals (5 shows & 100 rides) and be a current Gold or Platinum level card holder! RSNC Gold and Platinum members will also have the opportunity to compete in RSNC production Gold Shootout events throughout the season.

The Standard membership, has increased $10 dollars to $75 this season. Local producers are the lifeblood of the RSNC, and the membership rebate program is designed to help and incentivize producers to continue putting on quality sortings for local and regional competitors who will retain a $10 membership rebate sold at their events!

Please look over the different membership levels and find the one that works best for you and your family. Also, be on the lookout for updates to the schedule, new Gold Shootout classes, and more at RSNC.us. You can also purchase or upgrade your memberships on the website as well.

We are excited for the future and growth of this sport, and we believe all the new changes will create more opportunity for everyone involved in the RSNC, from sorters to producers! We are excited to see each of you in the sorting pens during the 2024-2025 season.

See you at the next one,

Logan Wolfe
RSNC Events Director
